

Pastor Lysette Vega

Lysette Vega was born and raised in the United States on October 31, 1967. She has three children, Mario, Jason and Lisa. She is married to a godly man who allows her to grow and function in her gifts and callings. Henry functions as a deacon, teacher for the men's retreat and is a former graduate of the NewLife Covenant School of Ministry.

Lysette has been serving the Lord for about eighteen years, she has prepared herself spiritually and academically completing three and a half years of seminary at Christian Fellowship Flock Biblical Institute, and eight years of Bible Institute at God's Army Ministries. Lysette has been under the Leadership of Rev. Wilfredo DeJesus for three years in preparation for her pastoralship.

Lysette has been known for her ability to stir up the gifts and callings of God in men and women alike. She has a prophetic edge anointing upon her life which causes people to draw near to God and provoke them to holy living. She has equipped and trained up teachers, leaders and deacons through her ministry.

Lysette has a passion for the gospel of Jesus Christ. She is called to teach and preach the gospel all over the world. She prays to one day have her own studio where she can broadcast the Gospel of Jesus Christ all over the world for the glory of the Lord. She is known to catch the heartbeat of God through intercessory prayer.

She has birthed several ministries; Teach Me 2 Grow, women's ministry; Anointed 2 Serve, an evangelism ministry and Straight Talk; a ministry for people with love ones in addiction to drugs or alcohol. Pastor Lysette is currently involved with the Spanish Ministry bringing the word and teaching bible studies.

Lysette has been a member of NewLife for six years and is currently a Minister of the Evangelism ministry for three years. She is also a current staff at the River of Life Shelter for Women and Children and function as a Case Manager and Housing Specialist.

Lysette was ordained a pastor December 31, 2005 at New Life Covenant Church one of the largest Hispanic churches in the United States where Rev. Wilfredo DeJesus is Senior Pastor.
